

<h1>18</h1>
Name:	Emyr Williams
A.K.A.:	Ems, Big M
D.O.B.:	04/01/1982
Squad No.:	18
Position:	DC / FC
Occupation:	Crack Inspector / Storage Tank Assessor
Hobbies:	Boxing, Eating, Drinking
Bio:	Coming from a strong and fairly successful rugby background, Big M had an initial stint with the club in the mid-Noughties as a deceptively quick, bulldozing, goal scoring centre forward - think fat Andy Carroll but with better hair. He was also involved as a Sponsor Liaison Officer on the club committee, however work commitments took over resulting in his absence from the club for 10 years or so. In 2016 he returned to the club at the age of 34 - mainly because he wanted lay claim to scoring a goal at the then new school ground. Within a month he was learning how to play centre back, and given role of Reserve team manager. Since, an injury-plagued 2 years has found him in the role of club Chairman. Whenever asked about how it has come to this, he claims to have been drunk through most of it.
Famous Quotes:	"Good touch for a big man." - John Mahoney, Llan Manager, 2004. (Before it became a cliché about Peter Crouch!) "If you consider goals-to-minutes ratio, I'm probably the most prolific scorer this club has ever produced." Emyr Williams himself... still to this day.
