Name:	Jonathan Dakin
A.K.A.:	Jonny, The Boy Wonder, J-Dak
D.O.B.:	20/02/1988
Squad No.:	20
Position:	DC/ MC/ FC
Occupation:	Architect
Hobbies:	Practising sarcasm; ironically he now has an upside-down head.
Bio:	The youngest of the 3 Dakin twins, Jon is arguably (only his older brothers argue against this) the most naturally gifted of the three. Enjoyed a rapid rise from skinny kid to key player back in the late-noughties, where he could operate anywhere across the back four, central midfield or as a makeshift striker. Became a class act as the pup under the older heads guidance, he then met his lovely wife Corrine, moved to Bridgend and went off the radar for a few years, plying his trade at a higher level nearer his new home. Returning to the club in 2017 - bald and obese - he had arguably surpassed his older brothers' efforts once again (on this occasion his older brothers will argue FOR this case). Currently making an epic effort to travel from his home for weekly games, he operates as a formidable presence in both midfield or at centre forward. His added girth and age has slowed him down but has added real power; the vision and frightening shooting prowess remains. "The Boy" remains a key member of the first team, growing in to a leader imparting the advice that he once took himself in the red, white and black.
Did you know?	Jonny once walked from his house - in The Allt, Llangennech - to the very peak of Snowdon for charity.
