A.K.A.:	Rhino
D.O.B.:	29/07/1987
Squad No.:	16
Position:	DLRC / MC
Occupation:	Law Student
Hobbies:	Funky Pump
Bio:	Currently in the role of Reserve team player-coach, Rhino has forged his career as an unassuming central midfielder or full back with an eye for a pass but predominantly using his physical attributes to effect! Signed from Hendy in 2010, Rhino has gained a reputation for being The Enforcer; he collected so many cards one season that Hallmark offered to sponsor his fines. Good job his dad is loaded. He is mellowing with age and recently got married; he has been at the club long enough for us to understand and empathise with his wife Natalie.
Web famous in April 2016:	Llandeilo Town take a 3-0 lead into the half time interval with goals from Keith Dainton and Josh Herman. Llangennech find themselves reduced to ten men late in the first half when Rhys Davies aimed a headbutt at an opponent. The situation is made slightly more enjoyable for the large crowd assembled at Tregib campus when his attempted headbutt misses wildly but he still finds himself being shown the red card for intent. https://theotherleagues.wordpress.com/2016/04/22/the-latecomers/
